

Integrated Memory Care in Community

INPUTS	STRATEGIES	OUTCOMES		MEASUREMENT
<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Business Operations <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Legal agreements with senior living communities (SLCs) – Marketing to people and families living with dementia – Dedicated space for staff – Analytic staff and tools • Primary Care <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Nurse Practitioners-Primary care and Geriatric psychiatry – Licensed Practical Nurses – Social Worker – Consultant Geriatric Pharmacist • Activities Program <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – Occupational Therapist – Community Care Workers – Dedicated software platform • Participants <ul style="list-style-type: none"> – SLCs within one hour of IMCC – Current IMCC patients and families – People and families living with dementia who reside in SLCs – The broader geriatric healthcare community 	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide preventive, acute, chronic primary care to patients • Share in advance care planning and medical decision-making with families • Make ourselves available to patients and families 24/7 • Staff training at senior living communities • Engage senior living staff in reporting daily activities of patients weekly • Coordinate care and services with families and senior living community • Regularly review medication for appropriateness and safety • Engage patients in cognitively stimulating activities for 2 hours/week • Monitor activities and behaviors for early 	1–3 years <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Consistent enrollment of 10 patients and families monthly • Signed agreements with 15% of the 142 senior living communities in the Atlanta metro area • Community care workers (CCW) recruited and hired with completed dementia care training • Usability of CCW software platform • Established protocol for after hours and urgent visits • Increased access for those residing at an hour driving distance from IMCC • Decrease loss of patients to other providers when moving to a community setting 	3–6 years <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Expanded IMCC access for additional patients • Rate of potentially inappropriate medication prescribing < 5% • Avoidance of emergency department, acute care and psychiatric hospitalization; Maintain a rate of < 5% for ambulatory sensitive admissions, similar to the IMC Clinic • High patient/family and senior living community satisfaction with services • Optimized health outcomes for acute and chronic conditions • End of life care consistent with patient and family goals 	6–10 years <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Continuity of IMCC care model for patients and families • Demonstration of sustainable and effective care model for people living with dementia • Opportunity to replicate the IMCC care model in other areas of the US 	Business model <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Cost avoidance by reducing inappropriate acute care utilization vs. comparable group of EHC patients • Direct reimbursement for nursing for complex care management time by NP, RN, and LPN • Program profit/(loss) Nurse and staff <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Engagement (Gallup Q12) • Job satisfaction • Decreased attrition from profession • Increased leadership opportunities for nurses • Increased pipeline of RNs and NPs • Increased diversity of nursing workforce Patient and caregiver outcomes <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Impact of DCA activities on patient outcomes • Adherence to dementia care quality measures • Primary care measures • Utilization of preventative/wellness services • Utilization of unwanted services • Caregiver stress, strain, experience

External Factors:

Healthcare Environment, Political Climate, Regulatory Climate, Pressures on Academic and Practice Environments